

Food & Beverage Manager

We are looking for someone with experience to take control of the F&B department to include the Restaurant, Bar and Functions. This is a "hands on" role with the majority of your time spent front of house. The George Albert Hotel is popular with both leisure and corporate guests and caters for conferences, weddings and other events. You will be working 40 hours per week - 5/7 days to include evenings and weekends.

Excellent knowledge of food & beverage service standards. Minimum of 2 years experience running or helping to run a large sized establishment required.

Your main responsibilities will include, but not limited to:

- Manage all Food and Beverage departments of the hotel, including the restaurant, bar and functions including weddings
- Duty Manager responsibilities when the GM is not in the Hotel
- Mentor and train staff to deliver excellent customer service as you build your team
- Look after customer queries and complaints
- Stock management
- Staff rotas
- Reporting to the GM

What you need to get the job:

- Experience at F&B Manager level in a quality establishment
- Confident managing/running functions up to 250 guests/delegates
- Strong leadership skills
- A strong character who can look after staff issues and guest complaints
- Bags of personality and enthusiasm to lead your team and welcome our guests

The Reward:

- Salary of £26,000
- 28 days holiday per year (inc. bank Holidays)
- Free parking
- 50% discount in the Spa
- Free meals on duty

Unfortunately, due to the large volume of applications we receive, we can only respond to applicants with relevant work experience.

Eligibility: In line with the requirements of the Asylum & Immigration Act 1996, all applicants must either be eligible to live and work in the UK or must obtain permits to work in the UK prior to application. Documented evidence of eligibility will be required from candidates as part of the recruitment process
